

Campus Oaks

Collegeville, California

Viognier Reserve

2007 Lodi, Mokelumne River

Affix label here

Awards:

2010 Winemaker Challenge International	Silver medal
2010 Los Angeles International wine & spirit Competition	Silver medal
2010 San Francisco Chronicle wine competition	Bronze medal
2010 Consumer Wine Awards	Bronze medal
2010 Bev X	3 stars, brilliant

“Sips n Tips”

Loaded with aromatics and, at its best, spices and minerals, Viognier is good for some intriguing food matches. The wine has a couple of weaknesses to watch out for, though: a tendency toward high alcohol (because it has to get really ripe before it's any good) and low acidity (think flabby). But when it balances flamboyance with crispness, West Coast Viognier is this season's best garden-party wine.

Tasting notes:

Tasting: it is a lively, generous and round wine. It delivers powerful flavors of exotic kiwi, apricots, pear and peach. It has rich body and long tingly soft spice finish.

Blend composition

100% Viognier
100% Lodi, Mokelumne River
100% 2007

Technical specs:

Alcohol: 13.33%
TA: 4.65 g/l
pH: 3.58
R.S.: 0.50%